A RESTRAINING ORDER AGAINST NEW PHONE RATE GIVEN BY COURT

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., January 24.—Judge E. B. Kinkead of the Franklin county court today granted a temporary restraining order against the Ohio State Telephone Company, prohibiting the collection of long distance tolls inaugurated by Postmaster General Burleson.

"The act of Congress does not authorize the Government custodian for war purposes to ruthlessly attempt to override state rights, state laws, and state officials to whom are committed the powers and duties relating to such matters by our own laws and statutes.

"A temporary restraining order may be allowed and so far as this court is concerned the decree may be made permanent without further hearing," Judge Kinkead said.

According to the ruling of the Postmaster General the granting of a restraining order in any state against one company automatically served to prevent collection of the new federal rates by all companies operating in the state. It was stated that the injunction will affect approximately 300 telephone companies in the state.

BIG BREAK IN MARKET

Corn showed losses of four to eight and three quarters cents a bushel, oats more than four cents and provisions the maximum limit for a single day, 50c to a dollar.

In a broad way the setbacks in prices were ascribed to readjustments from a war basis and to efforts to reduce the high cost of living.

ENTIRE HARMONY EXISTS BETWEEN AMERICAN VIEW AND THAT OF THE BRITISH

Second Session of Peace Conference Will Be Open to the Press. International Legislation on Labor Will Be First Subject Taken Up.

As American Views Crystallized Possibility of Any Discord a Peace Meeting, Vanishes.

PARIS, JANUARY 24.—(Associated Press) — The second session of the peace congress to be held tomorrow will, like the first, be open to the press. The first subject on the order of business as announced yesterday by the supreme council will be international legislation on labor.

America's view has been crystalized and is believed to harmonize in many respects with those of the British delegates. While it has been deemed proper to adhere to the practice of withholding such reports from publication until formally presented before the congress, it is believed the propositions of the United States are based upon full recognition of the principles of international protection of labor by governmental agencies, thus offsetting what is regarded as a dangerous tendency toward class control of governments.

Of interest to the southwestern section of the United States as well as to Mexico is the demand for freedom to work on an equality with native labor. Other provisions are said to relate to child and female labor, the prohibition of night work for minors, a basic eight-hour day and the prohibition of international trade in products made by minors.

GERMANY MUST PAY COST OF WAR AND INDEMNITIES

London Mail Asserts That President Wilson Has Agreed to Proposal to Make Huns Pay Indemnity.

PARIS, JANUARY 24.—(Associated Press)—During the consideration of the question of reparation at the meeting of the council yesterday the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail says that President Wilson agreed to the principle that Germany must be made to pay indemnities in addition to the full cost of reparation.

At the instance of the British representatives, the newspaper adds, discussion also was begun on the question of the abolition of conscription and general disarmament. It says it is possible that the plenary session of the peace congress today will give some attention to these questions.

In the future, the Daily Mail says, there will be one full meeting of the peace congress each week.

COUNCIL SENDS WIRELESS TO WORLD WARNING AGAINST ARMED FORCE

PARIS, JANUARY 24.—(Associated Press) — The allied and associated powers today agreed to send a wireless message through the world warning all concerned that parties using armed force to gain possession of armed territory the claim to which the peace conference would be asked to determine, would seriously prejudice the claim.

The council recommended that the governments concerned approve the issue of an identical medal and ribbon to all the forces of the allied and associated powers which had taken part in the war.

PUNISHMENT OF GUILTY IS TAKEN UP AT SESSION

Question of Price Comes Up at Thursday's Session of Peace Conference

(By Associated Press)
Paris, January 24.—With replies from the various Russian factions to its proposal for a conference being awaited, the Supreme Council of the peace conference met at 10:30 o'clock Thursday. Meanwhile, the joint Allies' Commission is being made up although no names have been announced.

After discussing the procedure for Saturday's meeting the council, according to the official announcement, considered international legislation on labor, responsibilities and punishments in connection with the war, reparation for war damage and the international control of ports, waterways and railways.

The council then took up consideration of the procedure to be adopted regarding the territorial question. The text of the official announcement reads:

"The President of the United States, the Prime Ministers and Foreign Ministers of the allied and associated powers and the Japanese representatives met this morning at the Quai d'Orsay. The meeting proceeded with the examination of the agenda for the plenary meeting of the conference on Saturday.

The following questions were considered for this purpose:

- "1. International legislation on labor.
- "2. Responsibility and punishments in connection with the war.
- "3. Reparation for war damage.
- "4. International regime of ports, waterways and railways.

"In addition, the meeting began consideration of the procedure to be adopted with regard to territorial question.

"The Supreme War Council will meet tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. Marshal Foch, Field Marshal Haig and General Diaz will be present, as well as the military representatives at Versailles of the allied and associated powers."

Having disposed of the Russian question for the moment the Supreme Council of the peace congress turned today to the principal object of its work, the establishment of a league of nations.

MANY LOCAL MEN ATTEND BANQUET AT THE DESHLER

Fish and Game Association Members From 66 Counties Meet in Columbus Last Night.

Governor Cox Calls Especial Attention to Fayette County Sportsmen.

Fayette County was represented at the Meeting of Ohio Sportsmen held at the Hotel Deshler, Thursday afternoon and evening, by a delegation mostly made up from members of The Fish and Game Association which holds its annual banquet and get together meeting in this city, February the fifth.

The meeting at Columbus was called by the Board of Agriculture at the suggestion of the Governor to give an opportunity to the Sportsmen of Ohio to indicate their wishes as to future activities for the betterment of fish and game preservation and propagation.

The meeting numbered approximately 300 delegates, representing something over sixty counties and covering every form of fish and game activity.

Fayette county with the exception of Franklin county, reported the largest number of delegates present when a standing vote was taken, this fact drew from Governor Cox pleasing words of commendation for this county and her record in this and many other activities.

In his address Governor Cox related that during a recent hunting trip in Alabama, the owner of the plantation on which the hunt was held, said he always remembered one spot in Ohio—a town Washington Court House, Fayette County, near where the most successful field trials on record were held, and told Governor Cox that he hoped the time would come again when there would be held in our county other such trials substituting for the quail the ring necked pheasant now being propagated by the department.

Other addresses included one from I. S. Myers, Mayor of Akron, who reported the recent purchase of a farm at Wellington, Ohio, for the propagation of game and pledged himself to further activities looking to the location of other farms about the state and Fayette county has more than an even chance to serve one of these.

Following the business session in the afternoon a banquet was held at the Hotel Deshler. It was attended by the following men from Washington C. H. and vicinity: Ed Fite, Clarence Baer, Howard Allen, W. H. Leenhower, Harwood Lurch, Nolin Hathaway, Glenn Pine, Morris Baker, Horace Ireland, J. M. Willis, Bert Ellis, H. M. Rankin, Chas. Allen, Frank Hard, who together with large delegation of Ohio Sportsmen spent a very pleasant evening.

Mr. Robert Schriver, Secretary of the Ohio Bankers' Association, presided at both afternoon and evening sessions and will also be one of the speakers at the coming Fish and Game Banquet.

The Spanish Government is in receipt of a message from the Portuguese Republicans saying they hoped to quell the revolt in short order.

FRENCH SOLDIERS LEAD IN WORLD'S SACRIFICE

At the outbreak of the war the population of France was 36 millions and of these 6 millions have been offered on the altar of freedom, thereby leading every other nation. We of America must be very grateful for this and also for an invaluable remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments discovered by the peasants of France, which it is reported has saved many lives in America, prevented thousands of surgical operations and relieved incalculable suffering among its people. Geo. H. Mayr, for many years a prominent Chicago chemist, imports the ingredients and sells this remedy under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

They're doing it every day—and I can do it for you.

You can't measure the merit of a tire by the price you pay for it—we learned that long ago. It's the mileage it piles up, and the dependability that you can place on it that counts.

Experience, after watching hundreds upon hundreds of tires, has taught us that Diamonds give you a better run for your money than any other tires we know.

Much interest is aroused in the recent newspaper statement, that American boys are marrying French girls at the rate of more than four hundred each month, and it is estilated that four thousand soldiers of the United States army of Occupation will return home with French brides.

Charles G. Loeb, one of the chief American attorneys in Paris has this to say:

"The marriages of our soldiers and the French girls are marriages of pure romance. There's never a question of dowry. Heretofore French parents have always expected to turn over a certain sum of money as a dowry to the man who would marry one of their daughters."

"Along comes our American and never mentions money. All he wants is the girl. And the French are more than pleased. Among the hundreds of such marriages I have known of, at not a single one was the question of money brought up."

"The only nation whose army gave to this epidemic of marriages is the United States. I have encountered few English or Italians marrying French girls. The girls want Americans for husbands."

"In most cases the girl knows little English, and the sailor little French. How they get together is beyond me," says Loeb. "Love, like music, is an international language, and a medium of speech seems to be unnecessary."

"All are in a hurry to get the ceremony over with. They come here on a few days' leave and want to return married. So the French have had to dispense with the law compelling 10 days' publication of the prospective marriages."

"The soldiers seem to marry in groups and sections. A soldier from Nantes come up and finding the process easy, promises to find up a number of his comrades for the same purpose. Soon a group of five or six from the same city arrives on the same mission. The girls' parents usually accompany them."

The brides are working girls, typists, shop girls and others. Scoldom does an officer marry.

"RED" DUCEY IS HEARD FROM

The many friends here of James ("Red") Ducey, whose splendid bravery in action with the American Marines at Chateau-Thierry won for him extraordinary praise and special mention, will be glad to know that through friends in Dayton the family here is assured of his safety as late as December 13th when he crossed the line and entered Germany in company with the American Marines.

It has been more than three months now since relatives here have heard directly from "Red" and they as well as hosts of friends were beginning to feel alarmed for his safety.

Through the same source Dayton friends, "Red's" folks here are advised that it is almost impossible for the marines now in interior Germany to send letters home and that that explains the long time that has elapsed with no direct word.

The letter received in Dayton, however, is from a friends of young Ducey's who saw him cross into Germany on December 13th.

The news is a welcome relief to many anxious ones, friends and relatives who want to welcome home the real "Red" in the full vigor which won for him so much praise.

The lad was very happy when he found that his "punishment" would be his return home. He had been absent six weeks, and when arrested was so worn, out from lack of sleep that he dropped off asleep at once.

$500 REWARD IS OFFERED BY THE ORTMAN MOTOR CO.

Theft of 34 Automobile Tires Several Weeks Ago Proves a Poser.

Thief Hauled Away Tires At Midnight, Making Two Trips For Them.

The Ortmann Motor Company has offered $500 reward for the arrest and conviction of the thief or thieves who, several weeks ago stole 34 automobile tires from the company's big plant on Market street, and hauled them away at midnight by driving up the alley back of the K. of P. building and the Ortmann plant.

The action of the firm follows failure of officials who made a lengthy investigation to locate the guilty party or parties, and at the same time increase the likelihood of the fellow's capture and recovery of the stolen tires, which are believed to be secreted in this city.

It seems that about one o'clock of a bright moonlight night in November a certain citizen was aroused by an automobile passing into the alley back of the K. of P. hall, and upon investigation he saw a Ford automobile stop at a doorway at the rear of the K. of P. building, and the driver leaped out, opened the door that leads into the banquet hall of the K. of P. building and proceeded to load up his automobile with new automobile tires. After loading up the machine he drove away, going out North street, and a few minutes—probably not over 10 minutes, he was back and obtained a second load of tires.

This was reported to the firm the following day and investigation disclosed that there were 34 tires missing, most of them Ford tires of Firestone, Fisk and Racine manufacture.

It was found that the tires had been removed from the stock room, through a window in the K. of P. building, and left in the banquet room of that structure until late in the night, when the tires were removed as above described.

After local officials failed to produce the thief or the tires special officers were called in from out-of-town detective agencies and worked on the case. The result of their efforts is not known, but it is presumed that the evidence obtained, if any was not of a convincing nature and this has led the firm to adopt other means to locate the thief.

By a little watchfulness someone may be able to win the $500 reward, either by locating the stolen tires, or by reporting promptly if any such tires are offered for sale under unusual conditions.

If the tires are still in the city they probably are stored in a barn or shed, and a little investigation may result in winning the reward.

As considerable theiving has been under way in the city during the past few months, the business men are determined to end it in a hurry, and will take drastic measures to do so.

What of Russia?

What to do with and about Russia is one of the big problems which must be settled in some way by the peace conference at the outset of its deliberations. It is difficult to see just how the work of the conference can be conclusive especially upon the all-important problem of the future peace of the world unless Russia—the Russian people—are brought within the compact now being framed at Versailles.

The difficulty, of course, is apparent at once. There seems to be no Russian government with which the other nations of the world can deal. Russia is in the hands of usurpers and Hun agents. The Russian people are in no condition, so far as government is concerned, to deal with the other nations of the world and the nations now represented at the Versailles conference will not attempt to deal with those who are wrongfully in control in Russia.

Conditions are still further complicated by the obligation of all the allied and associated nations to assist the Russian people and the maddening inability to extend the helping hand.

It seems imperative that some way must be devised to lift Russia out of the abyss into which she has plunged and yet how can it be done.

The proposal for all warring factions to enter into an armistice agreement and send representatives to Versailles may develop a solution, but there is nothing even in that proposal at present that gives much hope.

An Illustrating—

One of our local business men has given one of the best illustrations as to the effect, on Germany, of America's entrance into the war, we have yet heard.

In conversation this man was recounting the tremendous expenditures the government had made and much of it on units which had never reached the firing line. On that score, however, he not only had no complaint to urge, but urged those very facts as a reason why the government should be congratulated.

He said my place of business is on the bank of Paint creek. If one of the spring freshets which come along about three out of five springs, happens to be a heavy one a part of our plant is put out of commission and consequently a "rise" in the creek makes us nervous.

As the water rises we telephone up to the water works and if the creek is rising, at that point, we telephone farther up the creek and if every point up the creek reports the waters still rising we quit and abandon the lower portions of our business to the flood.

That's what Germany did—she sent word back when the American flood began to reach France and the farther up the line she inquired the bigger the flood was growing. At no place was the flood of war receding, so Germany quit.

How often men could dispose of apparently knotty problems and get an understanding of apparent mistakes if they would only simplify them and liken them to their own private business.

Government Monopolies

For years the American people have been fighting all forms of private monopoly and it is difficult, if not impossible, to convince a majority of the people, almost over night that monopoly, even by the government, of our public utilities is a good thing for people and business and public service.

During the stress of war time the people made no objection to the nation taking over, in whole or in part, some of the public utilities and operating them with the single purpose of war work. The people agreed to that willingly as a war-time need, but now since the pressing need has passed, they are insisting that the utilities be returned to private control and even the government monopoly done away with.

Postmaster General Burleson has particularly offended the public by his late seizure of cable lines and his radical change in telephone management and rates since the armistice was signed. The American people will meet cheerfully any necessary demand made upon them, but they will not quietly submit, when no emergency exists, to monopoly even by officials of the government.

There is, notwithstanding the final treaty of peace has not been signed, a feeling that this holding on to and reaching for more, public utilities is partially, at least, a political activity and to overcome that feeling it is up to the officials to make a clear explanation of conditions and furnish convincing proof of necessity.

POEM FOR TODAY

FOR APRIL'S EYES

know not and I care not, dear,
What faith may find or hope may bring;
I count my memories of the year
Alone by what the birds may sing;
Or what the rivers drift me down
From Camelots that still survive,
Beyond the factories of the town ndifferent to how men may thrive.
I know not what beyond me lies,
I only long for April's eyes,
For violets pied in gullies deep
Where naiads upon the lilies sleep
And none has care and none has woe
And none is itching to reform
The old world's wrong or set things right—
But just to love and live the light.

I shall be happy for the day
When men don't think they must employ
Their thought and time in setting straight
The crooked things—but go with joy
To take the sun and drink the dew
And dream of April, and to love
Clear skies, bright paths and rivers through
Soft meadows of the lark and dove.

FARM NOTES

ANNUAL FARMERS' WEEK

Considerably over 100 speakers have been provided for the seventh annual Farmers' Week to be held at the Ohio State University College of Agriculture from January 27 to 31. Over 20 state-wide agricultural associations will hold their annual meetings during that week. The program of all these organizations are thrown open without cost to the rural interests of Ohio. Not only will crops, soils, livestock, and other matters of importance to farmers be discussed, but a special homemakers' program has been provided for the wives and daughters who attend. A special educational program has also been arranged for the boys and girls. Approximately 200 members of Boys and Girls' Clubs who have won trips to Farmers' Week will be chaperoned and taken to many points of educational interest about the capital city. President Thompson, of the Ohio State University, who recently returned from a tour of France and England as chairman of a committee sent by the federal government to study agricultural conditions, will give a series of lectures, illustrated with motion pictures. Deans Davenport of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, and R. I. Watts of the Pennsylvania State College of Agriculture; C. P. Bull, agronomist of the University of Minnesota; W. C. Coffey, sheep specialist of the University of Illinois; J. G. Halpin, poultryman of the University of Wisconsin; B. H. Hibbard, professor of agricultural economics of the University of Wisconsin; D. D. Aitkin, president of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America; E. B. White, president of the Percheron Society of America; and Jane Addams of Chicago are among some of the prominent persons in their line who will make up the list of carefully chosen speakers.

Club Leaders Conference
Leaders of boys' and girls' corn, garden, food, pig, and other agricultural and home economics clubs conducted over the state will hold a conference at Columbus on January 30, during Farmers' Week. Among the speakers will be O. H. Benson, national leader of Boys' and Girls' Clubs of the United States Department of Agriculture, J. H. Henkle, superintendent of schools of Auglaize County, T. B. Lanham, state secretary of the rural Y. M. C. A., O. C. "BOOBY TRAPS" MADE BY HUNS

(By Associated Press)

London, January 22. — Detection by British army investigators of German "booby-traps," saved the lives of many an officer or man of the British armies during the period when the Germans were retreating from France. "I am convinced," says one officer, "that we nipped many of the Hun's favorite plans by capturing near Bray a little factory where he made his booby-traps. When we occupied it we learned much from the partly completed traps we found lying about the place."

One of them was an iron plate. This the wily Hun dropped in a roadway so that it would likely be trod upon by soldier or horse of our advancing troops. The plate was in two parts, with a spring inside, and usually contained a detonator connected with a heavy charge of explosive. When the weight of the foot was removed, the spring sprang into place and exploded the detonator, and the damage was done.

"These spring detonators were the Germans' specialty. They consisted of a tube containing a little spring with a hook at one end. Attached to the hook was a string or wire connecting with the explosive charge. Any arrangement by which the spring could be distended and then suddenly contracted served to jerk the string, and the charge exploded."

The Y. M. C. A. Basketball team was easily defeated by the Williamsport aggregation on the local floor Thursday night. This was the first game of the season for the "Y" and due to lack of practice they did not play in any way near their old time form.

TAKES FORTY DOGS THREE RECLAIMED

County Dog Catcher, C. W. Perry, so far has captured 40 dogs which were not licensed, and only three of the forty were reclaimed.

Eleven additional dogs were added to the list Friday morning during a short trip made by Deputy Perry, who uses an automobile in which is placed a crate, and the animals are then impounded as provided by law.

Persons missing their dogs and wishing to ascertain if they are in the hands of the dog catcher may easily find a description posted in the court house, at the side of the doors leading to the basement floor of the building. These descriptions are retained only so long as the dogs are impounded during the few days immediately after their capture.

So far 1805 licenses have been issued by the County Auditor.

GOOD "TEAM WORK" BY MINISTERS

The unusually close relations which exist between the two preachers now conducting a series of meetings at the First Presbyterian church, together with their earnest spirit, is producing a successful "team work" beyond the ordinary.

Rev. McWilliams, acting pastor of the local church, and Rev. H. N. Faulconer, whose efficient evangelistic work has made him widely known, were old friends in Kentucky, their native state. Their common interest in early surroundings has brought them closely in touch and the bond has been accentuated in their ministerial work. Frequently they have been associated in conducting meetings which have never failed to bring forth results in the deeper spirituality of the church and in acceding to church rolls.

Rev. Faulconer was just recovering from a serious illness when he came to this city, but his eagerness to fulfill his engagement overcame physical weakness and only those who have formerly known him realize the handicap under which he has been laboring in depleted energy.

Each evening appreciation of Dr. Faulconer and the beautiful spirit of these meetings grows and many from other churches, as well as those not affiliated with a church home, are taking advantage of the opportunity and finding a cordial welcome at these meetings.

On Thursday night Rev. Faulconer preached one of the finest sermons of the week, presenting the "Great Salvation" with a beautiful simplicity and effectiveness—the text "This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners," of whom I am chief."—First Timothy, 1st chapter, 15th verse.

His salient points were that salvation is great because it is God's gift to all—great because Christ died for our sins—that Christ found all sinners under a broken law, so he kept the law for the sinner and endured the penalty of it in his death. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

Salvation is great because the Holy Spirit applies it to sinners—because it delivers from the law—the power and guilt of sin—because it takes us to heaven.

How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation.

The singing of "Face to Face" by Rev. McWilliams, following the sermon drew the meeting to an impressive close.

Miss Roberta Stokesbury sang "The Lost Chord" beautifully just before the sermon.

There has been a good choir, directed by Miss Ada Woodward. Mrs. Lillie G. Davis, organist, each night.

Twenty of the survivors gave a dinner in his honor at a hotel and presented to him a gold watch for himself, a gold wrist watch for his daughter and a diamond pin for his wife.

Paris, January 24.—(By Associated Press)—Sergius Sazonoff, the former Russian Minister under the old regime and now representing the government of Yekaterinodar and the Siberian Government of Omsk, has declared in a statement that he would not participate in the conference proposed by the Supreme Council with Bolshevik representatives.

SURE CURE FOR SLEEPLESSNESS

London, Dec. 30th.—(Associated Press)—A woman writer in a London paper says she has found a cure for sleeplessness. She calls it "Ayzed" because it has to do with the letters of the alphabet. The title may puzzle Americans that are not aware that "ay" is the sound a Cockney gives to the first letter of the alphabet, and that "zed" is how the English pronounce "z." Here is the scheme:

"Tonight, say, you are wakeful. I view your friends; how many men and women you have known or do you know, whose Christian name begins with A? I prescribe Christian names because they are more lovable, and listable, than surnames. You will find that it is like what we are told of drowning—all your life will pass before you in a vision till you sink peacefully beneath the waves of sleep before one letter is disposed of."

Solitary confinement is the severest of all punishments. This is proof positive that a man soon tires of his own company.

HUN LANGUAGE TO BE BARRED IN WISCONSIN

Milwaukee, Jan. 20.—(By Associated Press)—The teaching of the German language in Milwaukee in the grade schools may disappear entirely when the new semester begins in February. In only one school in the city now is German being taught, and, under the resolution of the school board abolishing foreign language instruction, it would be discontinued at the end of the term in June.

In 1916, 200 teachers were employed to give instruction in the German language to 30,000 pupils and at the end of 1918 only one teacher was employed to instruct 400 pupils in the German language.

One of the final instances in connection with the elimination of German instruction came with the recent announcement that Leo Stern, assistant superintendent of schools in charge of the foreign language department, had resigned. The school board last Aug. voted to abolish the foreign language department, at the end of the present year. Mr. Stern's term expires June 30. Mr. Stern in his letter to the school board said that after a service of 35 years in the Milwaukee schools, he felt that he was "entitled to a rest."

Mr. Stern was president of the Wisconsin branch of the German-American alliance from the time of its organization in 1906 until it was disbanded. He was also at one time of the national

FLEU TAKES BIG TOLL OF RUSS

Archangel, Nov. 20th.—(Associated Press)—The Murman coast, the Kola peninsula and the entire district of the White Sea coast have suffered heavily from the influenza. In the regions of Onega and Kem, the population of entire villages and counties are ill with the disease. Along the shore of the White Sea there are only three sanitary or dispensary points and in many cases those are without medicines.

In the village of Ikenesk there are houses where a family has died and the houses are empty and closed. The bodies are being buried their dead without coffins, no one being available to make them. A writer in the Archangel newspaper says:

"The streets of the villages of the second zone are awful impressions. Dead bodies are lying on the ground, and the children are crying and howling terribly, unable to find food to feed them."

Archangel has suffered considerably from the epidemic. There were at one time two thousand cases there. A sanitary commission was formed, with power to examine summary judgment against violators of laws of health.

Work your eyes and ears overtime, and give your tongue an occasional holiday.

A Thousand Yous

When you pick up your newspaper and glance over the advertising you quite unconsciously multiply yourself a thousand times.

In half or three-quarters of an hour you can, metaphorically speaking, visit every progressive store in town. You virtually poke your head into every department of every department store. You run into the florist's, the confectioner's, the oculist's, the leading groceries, banks, theaters, all the various places that supply the things that make this the twentieth century and life worth the living. Here is a greater choice in clothing, food, furniture, books, pictures, musical instruments, travel, entertainment, opportunities for investment, the service of public utility corporations than any monarch of old could command.

It would easily take a thousand yous, traveling hard all day, to find out for yourself what the advertisements tell you in a few minutes in the evening.

They deserve your attention. They deserve your confidence. Without them, without the progressive spirit of the merchants and manufacturers who back them, the great abundance of things you now enjoy would be a memory—or something still to be realized. Without advertising the prices you would have to pay for many of the necessities you now buy for a few pennies would make a dollar look like a snow ball on the kitchen range.

Read the advertisements. Read them for your own information and advantage. Read them to encourage the advertisers who are making these better things possible for you.

HEAVIEST STORM IN YEARS
(By Associated Press)
Seattle, Wash., January 24.—Most of the Puget Sound section was whipped today by what Weather Bureau officials said was the heaviest storm that has swept this part of the state in years.
Not since 1906 has there been such a heavy rainfall in a like period. More than three inches fell in Seattle in 40 hours of continuous rain.
Railroads and wires from the Sound ports to the outside were cut and crippled by the storm.

STILL DEBATING IN SENATE ON FAMINE BILL

Hitchcock and Borah Clash Over Food Controller—No Vote in Sight.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, January 24.—A vigorous defense of Herbert C. Hoover by Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, featured Thursday's debate in the Senate of the $100,000,000 bill to supply food to the starving population of Europe.

This was the fifth day of debate on the bill and the final vote is not yet in sight. It is doubtful if the measure will be voted upon before Saturday.

Opponents of the measure are entirely satisfied to have the debate prolonged as much as possible without attempting an organized filibuster against it. They claim that each day's postponement of the vote adds supporters to their cause.

Administration leaders, however, are confident that the bill will be passed and are not willing to concede more than 20 votes to the opposition.

Mr. Hitchcock in his defense of Hoover denied that the request for the appropriation came as a result of plans formed in the United States by agreement between Hoover and the packers before Hoover went to Europe.

The Senator declared the plan was not even thought of until the representatives of the allied Governments sat down in the food conference and decided upon plans to relieve the suffering peoples. He characterized the attack upon Hoover as a "stab in the back," and said that Hoover had come out of the war with a better record than any other Government official.

Mr. Hitchcock's statement was hotly challenged by Senator Borah, one of the foremost opponents of the bill, who declared he would produce evidence to prove that Hoover arranged the plan of protecting the packers against a loss of profits on pork products shortly after the armistice was signed and long before he left the United States.

NICK OR FESS TO BE MADE SPEAKER

(By Associated Press)
Washington, January 24.—Renewal of Representative James R. Mann's illness, which has caused his absence from the place of the Republican leader in the House for two days, has given added interest to the offices which Representatives Nicholas Longworth and Simeon D. Fess, of Ohio, will capture in the next Congress.

It is now freely predicted that Mr. Mann will relinquish his fight for the Speakership in the Sixty-sixth Congress. The possible candidacies of Longworth and Fess for the Speakership have centered attention on Ohio, where it will be interesting to know which way the Ohio delegation will go.

Although both Congressmen are reticent it is understood that Fess would like to be Speaker and Longworth Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and thereby Republican floor leader. This further complicates the situation, as it is altogether unlikely that the two principal offices in the House will go to the same state.

IMPROVEMENTS AT SHERMAN

(By Associated Press)
(Special to The Herald)
Chillicothe, O., January 24.—Orders have been received from Washington for the construction of concrete foundations under all buildings in Camp Sherman.

This order, coupled with other orders and activities, is taken to mean that Camp Sherman is to be a permanent military camp.

TWO SCORE ATTEND NOONDAY MEETING AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Fully two score of business men and visitors attended the noon session of the Dutch Treva Club Friday held in the dining hall of the Y. M. C. A., and as usual following the repast a number of speeches were made and wit and humor flowed freely.

Representatives of the Farm Bureau Movement were present and spoke on the advantages of the organization.

Mr. F. W. Abke, local manager of The Sunlight Creameries, was among those called upon for a speech, and briefly outlined plans for the concern, stating that the concern expects to have forty trucks in operation when the plant was in operation a few months hence; that work on the new buildings would start as speedily as weather would permit, and it is expected that the concern would bring at least fifty additional families into the city.

Dr. Woodmansee and Sergeant Wilson were among those responding to calls for speeches.

A number of lively jokes were sprung upon various members which caused roars of laughter at the expense of the ones upon whom the jokes were sprung.

BUTTER FAT AND BUTTER TAKE DROP

When the government marketed a huge surplus of creamery butter a short time ago it started the butter fat and butter market downward, with the result that not only has the price of butterfat fallen from 70 to 50 cents in less than two weeks, but the price of creamery butter has fallen off several cents on the pound and is believed that a still greater drop will come in the price of butter within the next ten days.

A drop of several cents additional in the price of butterfat is anticipated before the price begins to go back a little as the big surplus of creamery butter is released by the government.

USES AIRPLANE IN FLIGHTS TO MAKE SPEECHES

(By Associated Press)
London, January 23.—An example of the commercial uses to which the airplane might be devoted has been given by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Andrew Bonar Law, by twice flying from his home in London to Scotland to make speeches in the parliamentary campaign now ended. The Chancellor was the first statesman in England to avail himself of air transportation for everyday purposes. By travelling by airplane, he crowded into six hours a journey which would have consumed 24 hours by train.

Mr. Bonar Law is not a young man nor does he regard flying as an adventure. He is a practical man of business, with an eye to the saving of time, and travelled by air merely as a matter of economy. It is suggested here that bankers and railway officials who have to fill engagements in different parts of the country and whose time is valuable may be expected to follow his example.

His exploit has increased the speculation on the future of flying as a commercial business. Hundreds of military flying men would like to continue their air work. To what extent peace conditions will offer opportunity to them is an interesting question. Thus far no definite projects for passenger or mail service have been started, although there is much talk of a daily air service for passengers between London and Paris, weather permitted.

Suggestion has been made that one of the large machines of a type which recently carried forty-one passengers over London, making a two-hour flight at a speed of more than 100 miles an hour might be used in the London and Paris service. The largest number of persons previously carried by an airplane in England was twenty.

GERMANS ANTI-BOLSHEVİK

Warsaw, January 24.—(By Associated Press)—The majority of German soldiers returning from Russia, although they quarrel among themselves, denounce Bolshevism. Many of them declare that as soon as they spend a few weeks at home they will be willing to return and fight the Bolsheviks on the eastern frontier of Germany, but are not willing to fight the invaders for the benefit of the Poles.

RADEK RETURNS TO BERLIN.

Paris, January 24.—(By Associated Press)—Carl Radek, Russian Bolshevik, who was prominent during disorders in Berlin recently, and who fled when the government troops were victorious, is once more in Berlin trying to resume connection with chiefs of the Spartacus element, according to dispatches to newspapers here.

DeHanish an Austrian Is Set Free After 24 Years Behind Prison Walls.

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., January 24.—Lasto De Hanish, 64, the oldest man in point of service in the Ohio Penitentiary, was pardoned today by Governor Cox to go to Chicago to live with his son. DeHanish has spent 24 years in prison, having been sentenced for life for first degree murder in Cleveland in 1895.

DeHanish is an Austrian and was lost to his family for many years. His son, Joseph De Hanish of Chicago recently discovered him and will take him to his home. His wife and daughter returned to Austria several years ago after a vain attempt to locate him.

The news, it is said, is being kept secret for fear of anarchistic reprisals.

CONDITION OF
MANY ITALIANS IS DESPERATE

(By Associated Press)
Rome, Headquarters of the Italian Army, January 15.—The distressing effects of the war and of Austrian occupation still are evident in the reconquered Italian provinces north and east of the Piave. The country in the vicinity of Oderzo, a small village about six miles from the lower course of the Piave, is a scene of utmost desolation. It was here that the Duke of Aosta's army advanced so swiftly and deeply into the Austrian lines as to threaten the communications of the Austrian army occupying Conegliano, thus forcing the Austrians to retreat. So intense was the bombardment that very little is left standing in the country all around Oderzo. Many of the houses now are merely heaps of debris. The village of Oderzo itself was not so seriously damaged as were the outlying houses as the Italian artillerymen tried to spare it, but it bears unmistakable signs of Austrian occupation. The villagers declare that the Austrians took away not only their church bells but their clothes and even the panes of glass from the windows, the doors, kitchen utensils and in fact literally everything that could be removed. The parish priest saved some of his household utensils and several barrels of wine by hiding them in a barn behind a heap of coffins. Owing to the fact that the population was greatly weakened by lack of food, the influenza claimed a high percentage of victims. In Oderzo, 200 small children were buried in one year of Austrian occupation out of a population of 2,400. The condition of the people still is desperate as about half of them are ill with influenza while clothing and food are almost unobtainable. When the Associated Press correspondent visited Oderzo recently there were fifty patients in the civil hospital lying on straw on the floor, without blankets while the building had neither windows nor doors. The single physician who, with the aid of a few nuns was attending them had no drugs and his only surgical instrument was his pocket knife. This situation is said to prevail in nearly all the reconquered Italian districts. The people, it is declared, have virtually nothing and need every thing.

IRISH REPUBLIC IS ESTABLISHED

(By Associated Press)
Dublin, January 22.—The Sinn Fein assembly met at the Mansion House Tuesday afternoon. The assembly stood while a declaration of independence was read announcing the establishment of an Irish republic and demanding the evacuation of Ireland by the British garrisons. The first business of the assembly was the election of a chairman after which prayers were said by the Rev. Father O'Mahoney, of Roscommon. The declaration of independence was then read. A crowd of perhaps a thousand, including many women and children wearing green, white and yellow ribbons, pressed around the door of the Mansion House, watching the delegates enter. Only two policemen were visible, but Sinn Fein had its own police—youth wearing white armbands—to keep order.

REBELS BESTED
BY FEDERALISTS

(By Associated Press)
Mexico City, January 21.—General Fortunato Mayotte, in charge of the pacification of the state of Guerrero, has reported to the war department according to an official announcement by that branch of the government, that the conquest of the Zapata and Mariscal rebels in that state virtually is completed. General Silvestre Mariscal, former governor of Guerrero, has been under arrest in the capital since Jan. 25, 1918, on a charge of disobedience of orders. The pacification of the state of Morelos, strong hold of the Zapata followers has been almost accomplished according to official announcements, by the forces operating under General Pablo Gonzalez. Spanish influenza and famine have played havoc with the bands of Emiliano Zapata and his lieutenants.

FINAL SESSIONS
OF THE GOOD HOPE
FARMERS INSTITUTE

Resolutions Are Adopted
And Officers Elected For The Coming Year.
Women's Session Proves
One of Deep Interest.

The twenty-first annual Farmers Institute of Good Hope came to an end Thursday night, after two days of deep interest and instructive programs. The evening session which formally closed the institute was purely an entertainment, with Price's ever popular orchestra furnishing the music, and Rev. F. E. Ross relating his war experiences. The house was packed for the evening session. Officers elected for the coming year are: President, Orris Hegler; Vice-President, R. B. McCoy; Secretary, Glenn Smith; Treasurer, Hugh Rogers. Mr. Rogers has been treasurer of the society for 21 successive years. The executive committee elected is composed of Mrs. Earl Johnson, Mrs. Heywood King, Mrs. Ruba Fontaine and Mr. Bussert. During the Thursday morning session J. W. Nicodemus "Saving the Soil" and Mr. J. W. Walker spoke on the "Future Problems of the Sheep Industry," dwelling on the importance of having the right kind of sheep and marketing the wool under an improved plan which will insure every farmer receiving pay in accordance with the quality of the wool. A piano solo by Jeanette Walker, an another by Gladys Coffey and a number by Miss Mary Arnold added to the interest of this session. Thursday afternoon was the women's session, they made good use of it, Mrs. York presiding in the absence of Mrs. Wash Lough. Gertrude Atkins one of the state speakers, addressed the assembly on "How to Influence the Social Life of the Young People" declaring that the time had come when more attention must be given to the social life of the boys and the girls and young men and young women. A duet, "Hats Off to the Flag" sung by Mrs. York and Mrs. Haines proved popular. Probation Officer Mrs. Franklin explained her work and urged that the "arm of protection be placed about our boys and girls before evil is established in their lives." The resolutions committee presented the following resolutions which were adopted as presented: Resolutions:— Be it resolved: First, that this organization, twenty-one years of age, the Good Hope Vicinity Farmers' Institute, stands not only for the betterment of farms, farmers and farming, but also for the highest ideals of womanhood and manhood. OIL PRODUCTION

(By Associated Press)
London, December 17.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The world's production of natural oil last year was estimated at more than 60,000,000 tons in a statement made by Dr. F. Perkins in an address delivered recently before the Institution of Petroleum Technologists. This would be an increase of 10,000,000 tons over the production of 1913, he said.

OPEN SEASON ON
FOXES IS AT END

Attention is called to the fact that it is now unlawful to trap or kill foxes, the open season having expired on January 9th, after having been in effect since October 2nd. Trappers and hunters must remember this as the penalty for killing a fox other than between October 2nd and January 9th is very severe.

WITH BRITISH KING AND QUEEN IN LONDON

PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON WITH BRITISH RULERS

WIRELESS HAS GREAT FUTURE

London, January 23.—(Associated Press—British Wireless)—"By the time the peace treaty is signed we shall be talking across the Atlantic by wireless," says Godfrey Isaacs, managing director of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company, in an interview. "One day in the not far distant future," he adds, "I think we shall walk about with wireless telephones attached to our bodies and we shall be able, standing say in Piccadilly Circus, to call up a friend who is flying somewhere. Or we may have an invitation by wireless telephony from a friend flying in France to join him at dinner in the evening."

"Wireless telephony has been very largely used in war for communication between airplanes and headquarters and for artillery work. But there is no reason why it should not be available over very much longer distances. "It will not be very long before one will be able to sit at one's desk in London and speak to New York practically instantaneously. Equal facilities will be available for communicating with Paris, Rome, Moscow or Amsterdam. In my view it will be as easy to speak to Sydney or Melbourne or to New Zealand. "Long distance wireless telephony will apply also to ships at sea and to airplanes and airships."

Geo. W. Williams Tells
How Quickly Nerv-Worth
Did the Work.

Richmond, Ind., users of this famous family tonic are enthusiastic in their reports. One of these, given a few days ago and put into the form of a signed endorsement, is as follows:

Nerv-Worth Co.—I have been bothered with rheumatism for some time. Some days hardly able to get about. I tried a number of remedies but it was Nerv-Worth that set me right. I read the statements of other and decided to give it a trial and am happy to say that it drove rheumatism out of my system. It also stopped my stomach trouble. (Signed) GEO. W. WILLIAMS.

308 N. 4th St., Richmond, Ind. Demonstrator Day adds to the above that Mr. Williams got the wonderful results reported by him from not quite one bottle of Nerv-Worth and is loud in praise of the medicine.

Your dollar back at the Brown or Christopher drug stores, in Washington C. H., if Nerv-Worth does not benefit. Adv.
